With Gratitude from Ferguson Family

The Family of Charlotte L. Ferguson takes this opportunity to express our most heartfelt gratitude for the many acts of kindness shown during our time of sorrow. We are indeed grateful that you chose to celebrate her life with us, as we reflect on the many ways she touched our lives. Thank you, Rev. William Rankin, Apostle Patricia Tatum, Rev. James Hosey and Ruth AME Zion Church, for your services "God is not unrighteous to forget your labor of love."-Hebrews 6:10

The Life & Legacy of Charlotte L. Ferguson

Charlotte L. (Gilchrist) Ferguson, 68, of Hermitage, PA, courageously surrendered after a long and fearless battle with breast cancer, surrounded by the love of those whose lives she touched. Her strength, determination, and unwavering faith carried her through many years of illness until the Lord called her home.

Charlotte was born on March 28, 1958, in Sharon, Pennsylvania, to the late Curtis T. Gilchrist and Lillian M. (Fleming) Gilchrist. She attended Sharon City Schools before earning her degree in Medical Secretary from the Shenango Valley School of Business.

She then served as a ward clerk at South Side Hospital and Northside Hospital in Youngstown, Ohio, where she faithfully worked for more than 25 years. Even after retiring from the hospital, Charlotte continued working with adults with special needs until her health no longer allowed her to do so.

A devoted woman of faith, Charlotte was a faithful member of Ruth AME Zion Church in Sharon, Pennsylvania. She proudly served on the Usher Board, greeting all who entered with warmth and kindness. One of the greatest honors of her life came recently when she was presented with the church's Woman of the Year Award, a recognition she accepted with humility and one that brought her tremendous joy and pride.

Charlotte was known for speaking her mind with honesty and conviction. She had a generous heart, a resilient spirit, and an infectious sense of humor. She deeply loved gathering with her family and friends, creating memories filled with laughter, stories, and unconditional love. Her greatest joy was spending time with her grandchildren, whom she adored beyond measure.

Throughout her battle with breast cancer, she remained courageous and steadfast in her faith, inspiring everyone around her with her strength. Charlotte leaves to cherish her memory her three beloved children: Fawne (McMillan) Moon (Gerald) of Youngstown, Ohio; Ceira Moreland of Farrell, Pennsylvania; and Curtis Moreland of Chester, Pennsylvania.

She is also survived by her loving sisters, Jolaine Gilchrist-Pope (James) of Hermitage, Pennsylvania, and Theresa (Gilchrist) Massey, of Pottstown, Pennsylvania; her ten cherished grandchildren; one precious great-granddaughter; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, church family, and dear friends, especially Twila, Debbie Thomas, and Valerie Trudo to whom Charlotte wanted to send a heartfelt "Thank-You & I love You"

She was preceded in death by her parents, Curtis T. Gilchrist and Lillian M. (Fleming) Gilchrist, and her beloved brother, Reginald Gilchrist Sr.

Charlotte's faith never wavered, even in her final days. Though she will be deeply missed, Charlotte's love, courage, unwavering faith, and enduring legacy of service will remain forever in the hearts of all who knew and loved her. Revelation 2:10 "Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life"
