*A Life Well Lived...
A Heart Well Loved...
A Legacy That Lives On.*

Those we love never truly leave us.
They remain in every cherished memory,
every lesson they taught, every smile
they inspired, and every life they touched.

Though our hearts are heavy with sorrow,
we find comfort in knowing that love never fades.
The kindness, strength, wisdom, and compassion that Ms. Bobbie Jean Moore shared with family and friends will continue to live on through generations.

May we honor her memory by loving deeply,
living faithfully, and extending grace to others just as she did.

The Life & Legacy Of Bobbie Jean Moore

Bobbie Jean Moore, who left this world peacefully on July 29, 2026, at the age of 73, surrounded by her loving family. Born on September 5, 1952, to the union of Robert Moore and Carrie (Ellis) Moore in Alberta, AL, Bobbie spent her life radiating warmth and joy, and she will be deeply missed by all who had the fortune to know her.

Bobbie brought laughter and love into her home, which served as a gathering place for family and friends. Known for her infectious positivity, she had a special affinity for the color red, which made her feel glamorous, sexy and alive. An ardent lover of music, especially blues, and a connoisseur of fragrances, she left a lasting impression on everyone she met with her vibrant spirit and creativity.

A proud 1972 South "Warrior" High School graduate, Bobbie was an accomplished certified nurse aide and dedicated her career to the long-term health care industry, serving her community at Colonial Manor Nursing Home.

Her nurturing spirit and dedication to others was exemplified by her passion and caring for others, both personally and professionally.

Bobbie leaves cherished memories with her beloved children Marcus L. Moore and Unika Moore. Bobbie was also a proud grandmother to Zey'Asia, Nayla, Darnell, Monyce, Malakah, and Malahn, who will carry on her legacy of love.

She is also survived by her beloved sister Alma Stanley; aunts Ruby Boyd, Liz Moore and uncle Walter Boyd, along with a host of other relatives and friends.

As Bobbie triumphantly crossed the celestial sands into eternity, she now enjoys a heavenly reunion with her parents; sister Ella Wilkins; grandparents Henry Moore, Luella Moore, William Green, Janie (Rand) Ellis; grandchild Cle'Veal Workman and great grandchild Ahmad Anderson, each who greeted her.

As we o honor and remember Bobbie, we embrace the love and joy she shared with us. In her own words, "Have safe and blessed one," - for this is not goodbye, but a "see you later." Let us celebrate a life fully lived and a spirit that will continue to shine through all of us.

Lovingly Shared by the Family
