With Gratitude from The LeFlore Family

The family of Rose M. LeFlore acknowledges with sincere appreciation every expression of love and concern shown during our loved one's passing. Your cards, calls, visits, gifts, and most importantly, your prayers have been a source of comfort and strength. We appreciate and are comforted by your presence with us today. May God continuously shower you with His blessings.

This Is Not Goodbye

I did not want to leave you, it was just my time to go
I know your heart is breaking, so, I need to let you know
That although you can no longer see me
I'll be forever by your side
I promise time will numb the pain, and help dry the tears you've cried
You can reach me in your memories, just think of me, I will be there
In your dreams, we can visit yesteryear, where we didn't have a care
Please carry on and live your life, I beg of you to try
Just know we'll meet again one day
As this is not goodbye

The Life & Legacy of Rose M. LeFlore

We joyfully celebrate the life and triumphant homecoming of Rose M. LeFlore of Columbus, OH, who entered eternal rest on August 29, 2026, following a brief illness. While our hearts are heavy, we rejoice knowing she is peacefully in the arms of her Savior.

Rose's journey began on July 15, 1952, in Youngstown, OH, born to the late Bertha Mae and George LeFlore Sr. A proud graduate of Campbell Memorial High School, Rose possessed a lifelong passion for learning. She went on to attend Youngstown State University, earning an associate degree in Dietetic Technology and a bachelor's degree in English literature. An avid and insatiable reader, she amassed a beautiful library of works by notable literary scholars. She held a deep, special affinity for Black literature, which served as the creative spark for her own curated writings.

Throughout her earthly journey, Rose maintained an unwavering, deeply committed relationship with God. For a time, she shared her faith as the host of the Christian radio program "5 Minute Cup," evangelizing uplifting, spirited, and inspirational stories of triumph. Her lifelong Christian journey led her to fellowship with several congregations, including Church of Hope, Christian Tabernacle, United Methodist, World Fellowship, New Bethel Baptist, Temple of Faith of Cross Lanes, WV, Early Morning, and Union Baptist Church. Rose dedicated herself to service, actively participating in choir, missionary work, community outreach, and the kitchen ministry. Guided by a profound compassion for the elderly and disenfranchised, she regularly gave her time and resources to ensure the community's most vulnerable felt seen, loved, and cared.

Throughout her career Rose held several positions; but her most rewarding job was that of a Dietician. She relished assisting individuals who needed program guidance in meal planning while offering suggestions on creating healthy lifestyle habits. She was a great cook and would often use food to bring her loved ones and friends together within her community. Though absent from the body, Rose is forever present in spirit. Her bright light, generous heart, and lasting legacy will continue to live on through the countless lives she touched.

She leaves to forever cherish her memory her four sons: Robert LeFlore, Terraine LeFlore of Columbus, OH, Titus LeFlore of Dallas, TX, and Timothy LeFlore of Cleveland, OH; two grandsons: Terrell LeFlore of Houston, TX and Tristan LeFlore of Columbus, OH; and one great-granddaughter: Tour'e LeFlore of Houston, TX. She is also survived by four siblings: Florene Crook and Lowrine Rhodes of Youngstown, OH, Ada LeFlore of Mansfield, OH and Jessie LeFlore of Warren, OH; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, and lifelong friends.

Rose was reunited in eternity with her parents; daughter, Candy; grandson, Terrez Spann; siblings: Clemale, Elizabeth, Charles, George, and Emmer Ann; two nephews: Pernall and George Henry III; and nieces: Stephanie and Ava.
