Benediction

"And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband." - Revelations 21:1-2

The Life & Legacy of Loretta Robinson

Loretta Robinson, left this world peacefully on September 4, 2026, at the age of 72. Born on April 26, 1954, in Tuskegee, Alabama, to the union of Charlie Caldwell & Evalina Caldwell, Loretta's journey through life was marked by her unwavering spirit and boundless love for others.

Loretta devoted many years as a managing hair stylist, touching the lives of her clients in the personal care and grooming industry. As an independent manager, she embraced her work with passion and artistry, creating not just beautiful hairstyles but also lasting relationships with those she served.

She was known for her keen sense of style, warm laughter, and the kind of wisdom that spoke directly to the heart. Loretta embodied the traits of a Taurus woman feisty and sassy True to her nature, as a fashionista, she insured even in her days that her nails were manicured. She was the very essence of a diva- stylish and full of grace and class.

A woman of tremendous faith and trust in God, she was a dedicated member of New Grace Missionary Baptist Church. Loretta's nurturing spirit reminded all of the importance of family and community, and her influence will continue to resonate through the lives she touched.

Her love and wisdom will continue to radiate through her daughter Ruqayya Bint Ali-Jaaber-Douglas. Her legacy will be sustained by her cherished granddaughters Jameelah Wylie and Aniyah Davey, who will carry forward her legacy of love, strength, and resilience.

Loretta also leaves precious memories with her siblings Lula Adams, Charlies Caldwell, Jr. Carl Caldwell, Malinda Borden and Willie Caldwell, long with a cadre of family and friends with whom she shared a special bond including Trusha Charton.

As her faith became sight, she was reunited in eternity he beloved parent and siblings Evelynn Caldwell and Christopher Caldwell.
