Together Again...Richard & Lucy

A reunion occurred in Heaven this week of the sweetest and most joyful kind as Mom's spirit moved beyond this earth released from her mortal life

And what a reunion it must have been! A joy beyond our conceiving when Mom met Dad in Heaven ending years of dignified grieving.

And we are certain Dad is still holding Mom's hand while she cherishes each moment by his side

And they're experiencing the joy of being together again catching up on the years they were denied.

And we are confident they're also looking over us hoping this happiness will lessen our pain.

As we contemplate the joy that they finally feel now that they are together again and though we'll miss them terribly and will long for them with deepest grief we are reminded that love is more powerful than death.

And this knowledge gives us comfort and peace as we can still feel their love surround us giving us a desire to continue on to try our best to live our lives well in the ways they would have done

For we know this isn't the only reunion Someday we'll be called back to be with them for life can lead us to greater happiness....

The Life & Legacy of Lucy Mae Fryson

Lucy Mae Fryson, daughter of the late G. Louise Crews Coleman and Booker Coleman, was born on September 26, 1937, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

She graduated from Westinghouse High School in 1955 and married Richard Lee Fryson on April 4, 1959, in Pittsburgh. After starting their family, they later moved to Youngstown, Ohio. Lucy took great pride in being a loving wife, mother, and homemaker to her husband and three children. Throughout her life, she maintained a strong bond with God and was a longtime member of New Bethel Baptist Church in Youngstown.

After her children entered junior high, Lucy began her career at Northside Hospital, where she worked as a Ward Clerk for more than 35 years before retiring.

In 2021, she and her husband relocated to South Daytona, Florida, where they enjoyed their retirement and the sunshine.

Lucy loved fashion, shopping, and good food. She was an avid bowler who won numerous competitions and awards throughout the years.

A generous philanthropist, she regularly donated to charitable causes and was always willing to help those in need. Lucy had a beautiful smile and a laugh that could warm your heart and lift your spirit. She was a devoted Pittsburgh Steelers fan, enjoyed watching westerns, loved traveling, and cherished spending time with her family.

Lucy will be forever missed by her children: son Richard Michael Fryson of Youngstown, OH; daughters Carla (Eddie) Sol of Daytona Beach, FL, and Candace Fryson of Youngstown, OH; her cherished grandchildren, Kellee (Kenton) Rickerson, Christopher Williams, and Alazia Hobard; great-grandchildren Daz'ia (Cornell) Johnson, Kenton (Genesis) Rickerson, Jr., and Kayden Rickerson; great-great-grandson Jayce Rickerson; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Richard Lee Fryson; sisters, Elinor Montgomery and Patricia Coleman; brother, James Coleman; and grandson, Henry P. Williams II.

Lucy's love, kindness, faith, and unwavering devotion to her family will forever remain in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.
