The Life & Legacy of Elder Angela D. Curtis-Strozier

Elder Angela D. Strozier, affectionately known as “Dorletta” to her family, was born on May 25, 1959, at Youngstown’s Elizabeth Hospital to the union of Huey P. Curtis and Bonnie R. Smith-Curtis.

Angela attended St. Patrick's School and Cardinal Mooney High School in Youngstown, Ohio, graduating in 1977. She was an honor student and received numerous academic awards at both schools. She continued her education at Youngstown State University (YSU) earning her associate, bachelor's, later attaining her master’s degree in criminal justice.

Angela was also an accomplished athlete. She held first-place records in Cardinal Mooney High School's track & field shot put competition, leaving a rich legacy of determination, strength, and achievement. She then dedicated many years at YSU, working in the Registrar's Office. In 2004, she was diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis. Angela never allowed her illness to define or diminish her spirit.

Angela's spiritual journey began at a young age, and music remained an important part of her life throughout the years. She shared her gift of song with school choirs and served as choir director at Lighthouse Ministries, which she joined. She was ordained as an Elder of the church and faithfully embraced her calling to ministry. As Angela would often say, "I can marry and bury," a statement that reflected her dedication and commitment to serving others.

Angela was an avid die-hard Pittsburgh Steeler enthusiast and loved her soap opera time which included The Young and the Restless, Bold & the Beautiful and Beyond the Gates! In her spare time, she enjoyed playing games such as Candy Crush on her cellular device to keep her occupied Angela will be deeply missed by everyone whose life she touched. She leaves to cherish her precious memories her loving husband, Charles D. Strozier III, whom she married on July 13, 1991, her son, Andre P. Norman; and bonus son, Dr. James (Nakesha) Benjamin Snipes III, whom she lovingly reared; brother, Dwayne W. Curtis (Lillian); sister, DeCheryl P. Curtis; bonus mother, Mary F. Curtis; bonus sister, Annette Y. Williams; sister-in-love, Barbara Strozier-Abron; brother-in-love, Wayne Abron best friends Carole and Bruce Rockwell, along with a host of family and friends.

As Elder Angela’s faith became sight on November 1, 2026, she experienced a reunion in eternity with her beloved parents; sons, David E. Norman and Aaron D. Norman and grandparents, John W. and Pearlie Brown; as well other relatives.

Though Angela's earthly journey has ended, her faith, strength, love, music, and dedication to others will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. Her life was a testimony of perseverance, service, and unwavering faith. She will never be forgotten.

As we celebrate the life of Elder Angela, let us reflect on the joy she brought into our lives and the legacy of love she leaves behind. She will be deeply missed, but her spirit will forever remain in our hearts.
