

Dear Friends and Family,

Please be advised that I have moved. I received a call the other day from God, the chief architect. He informed me that my new home was completed. You all know I had been working on my building, sending up the timber, packing up, and getting ready to go. I knew that my mansion needed some finishing, and the chief carpenter, Jesus Christ, had to inspect it and give it the final approval. On the morning of January 31, 2026, Jesus let me know that my mansion was complete and that I could move in. My new home is beside my mother, Shirley Parker. My new home is a sight! It's located on an exclusive estate behind a beautiful pearly gate. Grandma Lola Mae Parker and Grandma Barbara Patillo are on the other side. And it's just on the other side of Carolina Short. You know the streets are paved with gold and every day is Sunday. I lived in Newark, New Jersey, all my life with my family, but my new home is so much better. There is peace and joy; happiness and no more pain and suffering here. I pray that you all get to move here one day. Before I close, let me give you my new address:

Obituary

Sabrina Bridget Parker entered into eternal rest on January 31, 2026. Sabrina was born in Newark, NJ, on April 15, 1994, to Shirley Parker and Ernest Patillo.

Sabrina grew up in the City of Newark. She lost her mother at an early age, and her Aunt Glenda Parker raised her. She graduated from Newark Vocational High School in 2012. After graduation, Sabrina attended Jersey City University on a full scholarship, achieving academic excellence.

Sabrina honored her passions which revolved around friendship, music, dancing, and spending time with family. She loved children and she often kept family and friends' children. She liked braiding hair for family and friends in the neighborhood. Her favorite pastimes reflected her artistic and caring nature.

Sabrina was preceded in death by her mother Shirley Parker, grandmother Barbara Patillo, brother Ernest Matthews, and cousins Khadijah Jacobs and Michael Parker.

Sabrina leaves to cherish her fond memory: her loving daughter Sabrina (Journey) Star Parker, father Ernest Patillo, sisters Cassandra Parker and Idrissa Matthews, nieces Qui-Siya Mitchell, Malia Matthews and Makenzie Robinson, special cousins Lisa Parker, Lolita Gillespie and Star Jacobs, aunts Carolyn Parker and Glenda Parker and Louise White (East Orange) and a host of other aunts, uncles, cousins and other relatives and friends.
